

Karen Hammond

Managing Director, Devonshire Investors

Karen Hammond has served in a range of leadership roles for the financial services industry.

Currently, Ms. Hammond is a Managing Director at Devonshire Investors, the private equity group affiliated with Fidelity Investments. Previously, she held several roles at Fidelity including Senior Vice President of Fidelity Management & Research Company, Corporate Treasurer of FMR Corporation and Chief Operating Officer of Fidelity Investments Japan in Tokyo.

Prior to joining Fidelity, Ms. Hammond worked at Boston Five Cents Savings Bank as Senior Vice President, Treasurer and Chief Financial Officer, and was Trust Officer at Bank of New England.

Ms. Hammond is a Chartered Financial Analyst and a member of the Boston Economic Club and the Association of Investment Management and Research. Her community affiliations include the Boards of Simmons College and the International Institute of New England, and she is a member of the Finance and Budget Committee of Moses Brown School in Providence, Rhode Island and ex-officio Board member at The Carroll School in Lincoln, Massachusetts.

For the Nellie Mae Education Foundation, Ms. Hammond is Chair of the Board's Audit Committee, and also serves on the Executive Finance and Investment committees.